About the Instructor

Melanie Loughin has been actively involved in the golf business for 15 years. She graduated from Methodist University in Fayetteville, North Carolina with a B.S. in Business Administration, a B.S. in Marketing and a Concentration in Professional Golf Management. While at Methodist University, Melanie was a 2-time All-American, a 2-time NCAA Division III National Championship Individual Runner-Up, and a 3-time NCAA Division III National Champion Team Member. Melanie completed her college internships at The Rail Golf Course in Springfield, Illinois (former site of the LPGA State Farm Rail Classic), PGA National Resort and Spa in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, The Carolinas Golf Association in North Carolina, and the Dana Rader Golf School in Charlotte, North Carolina. After a short stint on the Futures Golf Tour in 2002, Melanie began working at Railside Golf Club in Byron Center, Michigan as an assistant golf professional. She has been involved with the Mines Golf Course since it's opening in 2005.
